

Changing Behaviour, Winning Hearts & Minds

Community Landcare develops social capital, changes norms and practices, and wins hearts and minds.

Conserving Australia's Natural Resources

Community Landcare groups manage and conserve Australia's soils, land, vegetation, water resources and biodiversity - natural resources threatened by, and crucial in mitigating the effects of climate change.

Promoting Sustainable Land Practices

Landcare promotes sustainable agricultural practices, assisting Australia adapt to the challenges of climate change.

COMMUNITY LANDCARE

Supporting Australia in a Changing Climate

National
Landcare
Network

Building Resilience

Community Landcare confers resilience to individuals, communities, and natural systems.

Increasing Disaster Resilience

Community Landcare builds vital resilience in the face of changing climate, weather, markets, and disasters such as bushfire and drought.

Multiplying Returns to Investment

Analyses reveal Landcare multiplies initial investments by up to five or six times.

For more information visit: <http://nlc.org.au/>